1) Tips to Prepare your House for Sale

A) Focus on the most attractive Items first what does make your house special, what differentiates it from your neighbors.

- Kitchen
- Staircase
- Crown Moldings
- Special Light Fixtures
- Outdoor Kitchens
- Pool
- Smart Home, Security, ...
- Community (Gated, Club House, Golf, ...)

B) Curb Appeal

- Determines how strongly a prospective buyer will want to see more
- You only get one chance for a first impression
- What to do:
- Focus on small changes, they normally yield the highest return
- Front Door (Upgrade or Paint)
- Remove overgrown bushes
- Trim trees
- Add low maintenance landscaping
- Refresh the bark
- Paint window frames to match (even if you do not paint the entire house this makes a big visual impact)
- Power wash drive and walkways
- Stain your fencing
- Replace the mailbox

C) Inside the house

- Focus on:
 - Kitchen
 - Bathrooms
 - Floors
- Those 3 items will determine a big part of your home's value
- Try to avoid a complete remodel
- Focus on incremental changes
- New fixtures
- New paint (e.g. resurface instead of replace)
- Use neutral, light colors
- Clean: professional cleaning might already do the trick
- Floors: replace carpet with easy to maintain flooring
- Be careful what parts you choose
- High end is expensive and might be worth it to you, but you might not get the value of what you spend.
- Buyers usually do not go that far.

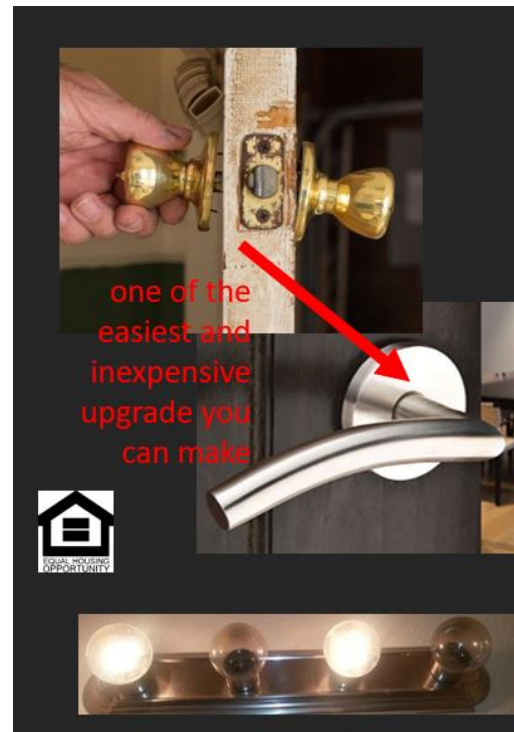

D) Check the Appliances and Lights

- If you notice that certain components of your house could use a tune up or replacement buyer will too!
- A dusty water heater full of cobwebs will not make the impression it is well maintained.
- Neither will a furnace with an old dirty filter.
- Replacing crucial appliances such as a furnace, if needed, is good but cleaning them up is a must.
- Lights: replacing only lightbulbs can make a big difference
- What to do:
 - Appliances – Keep or Replacements?
 - First clean them up, replace only if needed
 - A home warranty might be much less expensive than replacement
 - If you replace focus on energy efficiency
- Light Color:
 - Choose higher temp LED lights – they will brighten up a room and you might not need to replace the fixture

E) Make things feel solid

- If you notice that certain components of your house could use a tune up or replacement buyer will too!
- A dusty water heater full of cobwebs will not make the impression it is well maintained.
- Neither will a furnace with an old dirty filter.
- Replacing crucial appliances such as a furnace, if needed, is good but cleaning them up is a must.
- Lights: replacing only lightbulbs can make a big difference
- What to do:
- Appliances – Keep or Replacements?
- First clean them up, replace only if needed
- A home warranty might be much less expensive than replacement
- If you replace focus on energy efficiency
- Light Color:
- Choose higher temp LED lights – they will brighten up a room and you might not need to replace the fixture

F) Smart Home Features

- Smart Home Features >>>
- Smart Home features are the new sexy...
- It will get buyers attention, just like electronics does when you buy a car
- What to do:
- Focus on top brand smart home features only
- You cannot go wrong with Nest, Honeywell, Ring, Alexa, etc.
- No brand controllers which buyers do not recognize might work well but will always leave a doubt in the mind of the buyer if they are reliable and really work.
- Security is a big deal to many home buyers, cameras on the outside (driveway, entry) are desired features, but make sure that you can monitor them remotely.
- Don't overspend on tech, tech changes in light speed
- That fancy surround sound system will be old quickly
- Same is true for fancy security systems
- Remember when everyone wanted a ceiling mounted projector?

G) Solar

- How is solar effecting sales?
- The answer to this question is not as straight forward as you think, there are several factors to consider:
- Are the Panels Owned or Leased?
- A house with owned Solar Panels is relatively straight forward to sell – it's an upgrade like a hardwood floor instead of carpet and there are no separate agreements to execute during the sale. The Buyer must just sign up with the Utility company for a new Net Meter Agreement after closing.
- A house with leased Solar Panels is a bit more complex as either you need to buy out the lease or transfer it (which means the buyer needs to meet the credit requirements of the leasing company) – both can potentially delay the sales process.
- Above sounds complicate but in general it is not, and in average you will be pleasantly surprised with the additional value you get out of a house with solar and it should also help attract offers fast as it is a seek after feature.

H) Clean!!!

- Conduct a smell test...
- Foul odors, even slight ones, can be a deal breaker. It is even worse that you might not even notice them, as humans get used to a persistent smell.
- We recommend inviting an unbiased third party, ask a friend or a neighbor to come over, and try to detect any smells or lingering odors, especially in kitchen and bathrooms.
- If your friends detect smells, take this seriously, and be prepared to do some deep cleaning (if your friend can smell it, chances are buyers will do).
- Don't try to mask the smell with candles or room deodorizers, buyers will notice and will get even more suspicious. Furthermore, covering up odors with a stronger scent might even turn buyer's away that don't like the smell.
- Clean, clean, clean...
- Once you're done cleaning your house, clean more. Even if you're not worried about what buyers will think of your home's smell, you want your property to look spotless.

2) Preparing for Showing / Open House

1) LET YOUR HOME GIVE A SMILE TO BUYERS

First impressions are lasting: The front door greets the prospect. Make sure it is fresh, clean and sharp looking. Keep lawn trimmed.

Let the sun shine in: Open draperies and curtains and let the prospect see how cheerful your home can be since dark rooms do not appeal.

Can you see the light? Illumination is a welcome sign. The potential buyer will feel a glowing warmth when you turn on all your lights for an evening inspection.

Repairs can make a big difference: Loose knobs, sticking doors and windows, warped cabinet drawers and other minor flaws detract from home value. Have them fixed.

From top to bottom: Display the full value of your attic and other utility space by removing all unnecessary articles.

Decorate for a quick sale: Faded walls and worn woodwork reduce appeal. Why try to tell the prospect how your home could look when you can show them by redecorating? Safety first. Keep stairways clear. Avoid cluttered appearances and possible injuries.

Make closets look bigger: Neat, well-ordered closets show space is ample.

Arrange bedrooms neatly: Remove excess furniture. Use attractive bedspreads and freshly laundered curtains.

Bathrooms help sell homes: Check and repair caulking in bathtubs and showers. Make the rooms sparkle.

Fix that faucet! Dripping water discolors sinks and suggests faulty plumbing.

Showing: Avoid having too many people present during a showing. The potential buyer will feel like an intruder and will hurry through the house.

Silence is golden: If you are present, be courteous but don't force conversation with the potential buyer. They want to inspect your house - not pay a social call.

Music: Nice but not when showing a house. Turn off the blaring radio or television. Let the agent and buyer talk, free of disturbances.

Pets: Keep them out of the way preferably out of the house.

Conversation: Never apologize for the appearance of your home. After all, it has been lived in. Let us, the trained salesperson, answer any objections. This is our job.

Stay In the background: The salesperson knows the buyer's requirements and can better emphasize the features of your home when you don't tag along. You will be called if needed.

Do not push add on sales: Trying to dispose of furniture and furnishings to the potential buyer before they have purchased the house often loses a sale.

A word to the wise: Let your us discuss price terms, possession and other factors with the buyer. We have done this numerous times and know how to drive the discussion forward towards an offer.

Use your agent: Show your home to prospective customers only by appointment through us. Your cooperation will be appreciated and will help close the sale more quickly.

3) Tips for your house hunt

There are lots of legal and financial aspects to consider when buying a home and we cover all of it in following sections, there is one aspect which in our opinion comes first:

- Get it Right the first time!
 - The nicest house does become annoying quickly if there is a nuisance around it... (trust us we have been there)
 - Correction is expensive as you might want to move again due to a nuisance
 - Look for the right neighborhood and house for YOU:
 - Analyze the Neighborhood carefully
 - Talk to future neighbors to get a better feel how it is living in the neighborhood
 - Visual Inspection+ look carefully and get the advice of a professional:
 - A hole a wall might look terrible but might be an easy thing to fix.
 - A squeaky floor might sound like a minor annoyance, but it could be a sign of a major structural issue.

5) The Buying Process

J) SUBMITTING AN OFFER

Once you have chosen a real estate professional, we will guide you through the process of finding a property that fulfills your needs. When you have chosen a property, we will draft a purchase agreement for you. We will advise you on protective contingencies, customary practices, and local regulations. At this time, you will need to provide an “earnest money” deposit, usually from 1% to 3% of the purchase price (the deposit is not cashed until your offer has been accepted by the Seller). The buyer will choose the title and escrow company. The seller will then accept, counter or reject the offer.

K) OPENING ESCROW

Once the offer is accepted and signed by all parties the buyer’s real estate professional will open escrow and the earnest money will get deposited into an escrow account. All funds associated with the transaction will be handled through escrow.

L) THE CONTINGENCY PERIOD

This is the time allowed per your Purchase Agreement to obtain financing, perform inspections, and satisfy any other contingencies to which your purchase is subject. Typical contingencies include:

- Approval of the Seller’s Transfer Disclosure Statement*
- Approval of the Preliminary Report from the Title Company*
- Loan approval*
- Appraisal of the property*
- Physical inspections of the property*
- Pest inspection and certification*
- Satisfaction of any purchase contingencies & specific transaction requirements*

M) HOMEOWNERS INSURANCE

Before the close of escrow, the buyer must obtain homeowners insurance that is acceptable by the lender. The real estate professional will coordinate between your insurance agent and the Escrow Officer to make sure your policy is in effect at close of escrow.

N) DOWN PAYMENT FUNDS

You will need a cashier's check or wire transfer several days prior to the closing date of escrow. Escrow will provide a settlement statement with the required amount of funds needed to close including down payment and closing costs.

O) SIGNING LOAN DOCUMENTS

When all the conditions of the Purchase Agreement have been met, you will sign your loan documents. Escrow usually sets up the appointment for your final signing.

P) CLOSING ESCROW

After loan documents are signed, the buyer has deposited the remaining balance of funds needed to close and all the purchase agreement requirements have been met the lender will review the loan documents. If everything is satisfactory the lender will fund the loan. The Deed will then be recorded at the County Recorder's office and the buyer will take ownership of the home.

When you make an offer on a home, your Purchase Contract will likely contain provisions allowing you various inspections of the property. The purpose of these inspections is to educate you as to the physical condition of the property you are purchasing. While these inspections do not provide guarantees of the condition of the property, they do provide valuable information to you as a Buyer. It is important to remember that your Purchase Contract may provide for withdrawal from the contract if these reports are unsatisfactory to you, but inspections should not be considered an open door to renegotiate the purchase price.

Q) STRUCTURAL PEST CONTROL INSPECTION

Often referred to as a "Termite Report," the Structural Pest Control Inspection is conducted by a licensed inspector. In addition to actual termite damage, the Pest Report will indicate any type of wood destroying organisms that may be present, including fungi (sometimes called “dry rot”), which generally results from excessive moisture. Most Pest Reports classify conditions as Section 1 or Section 2 items.

Section 1 Conditions

Section 1 conditions are those which are “active,” or currently causing damage to the property. Generally, Section 1 items need to be corrected before a lender will make a loan on a home.

Section 2 Conditions

Those which are not currently causing damage, but are likely to, if left unattended. A typical Section 2 item is a plumbing leak where the moisture has not yet caused fungus decay.

Who Pays?

Your Purchase Contract will specify who is responsible for the cost of the inspection and making these corrections. This is a negotiable item and should be considered carefully. We will advise you as to what is customary and prudent.

A) PHYSICAL INSPECTION

The Physical Inspection clause in your Purchase Contract, when initialed by both parties, allows you the right to have the property thoroughly inspected. This is usually done through a General Home Inspection. The Inspection and the resulting report provide an overall assessment of the present condition of the property.

What is Inspected

The Home Inspection covers items such as exterior siding, paint, flooring, appliances, water heater, furnace, electrical service, plumbing, and other visible features of the property. This is a general inspection and will often call for additional inspections by specific trades, such as roof and furnace inspections.

Further Inspections

If conditions warrant (e.g. home shows large cracks, etc.), the Home Inspector may recommend a Structural Engineer’s Report. Such a report would identify structural failures and detail recommended corrections.

Who Pays?

Typically, this inspection is paid for by the Buyer.

B) GEOLOGICAL INSPECTION

You may also elect to have a Geological Inspection (e.g. home is on a hill side) to educate yourselves as to the soil conditions at the home you are purchasing. This inspection is performed by a Geotechnical Engineer and involves not only physically inspecting the property, but also researching past geological activity in the area. The primary purpose of a Geological Inspection is to determine the stability of the ground under and around the home.

Who Pays?

Typically, the Buyer pays, but as with other inspections, this is negotiable according to the contract.

6) THE LOAN PROCESS

R) SHOPPING FOR A LENDER

A very important part of purchasing a home is finding the right lender. Listed below are questions to ask while shopping for a lender and characteristics you should look for when choosing a lender, as well as, what not to do when shopping for a lender.

S) QUESTIONS TO ASK WHILE SHOPPING FOR YOUR LENDER...

- What is his or her reputation within the community? How many loans do they close each year?
- Is the company well known? How long has the company been in the business?
- Is it an institutional lender or a mortgage broker? Does the mortgage broker have access to a wide variety of loan packages?
- Can the interest rates be locked in and for how long?

T) WHAT NOT TO DO WHEN SHOPPING FOR YOUR LENDER...

Do NOT call around asking for interest rate quotes:*

- Rates quoted over the phone are rarely locked prices. This is one way the lender gets you to come into his office. Rates can be subject to change unless they are predetermined for a specific period.
- Interest rates can change daily. A quote you get today may not be available at the same price tomorrow.
- The interest rate you are quoted over the phone by a lender who knows nothing about you may not be a program that will fit your needs or situation.
- You will have no knowledge of the other programs the lender may have to offer you.

Getting pre-qualified: we recommend that home buyers get pre-qualified with a lender (we will be pleased to assist you with this) before selecting a home to purchase. This way you will have the best information about the right price range for your pocketbook.

7) Reasons to get prequalified....

- With prequalification, you can determine which loan program best fits your need and which programs you qualify for. (List of loan programs to follow)
- You will know exactly how much you are qualified for. It's a waste of your time to find your "ideal home" and then find out you can't afford it.
- Your monthly payment will be set. This will allow you to budget your money before making this large investment.

- It shows you what the down payment and closing costs will be. If you are a first-time buyer, you may be able to qualify for a special first-time buyer program which may allow you to afford more home for your money.

8) Information Needed for the Loan Application

9) Types of Loans

Adjustable Rate Mortgage

Adjustable rate mortgages have an interest rate that is adjusted at certain intervals based on a specific index during the life of the loan.

Balloon Payment Loan

A fixed rate loan that is amortized over 30 years but becomes due and payable at the end of a certain term. May be extendible or may roll-over into another type of loan.

Buy-Down Loan

Buy-Down loans are fixed rate loans where the interest rate and the payment are reduced for a specific period by paying the interest up front to subsidize the lower payment.

Community Homebuyer's Program

A fixed rate loan for first time buyers with a low-down payment, usually 3-5%, no cash reserve requirement and easier qualifying ratios. Subject to borrower meeting income limits and attendance of a four-hour training course on home ownership.

Conventional Loan

Conventional loans are sometimes more lenient with the appraisal and condition of the property. When you are buying a "fixer upper" you may need to use a conventional loan. Homes purchased above the FHA loan limit are usually financed with conventional loans.

FHA Loan

FHA loans are insured by the Federal Housing Administration under H.U.D. They offer a low-down payment and are easier to qualify for than conventional loans.

Fixed Rate Loan

A fixed rate loan has one interest rate that remains constant throughout the life of the loan.

Graduated Payment Mortgage

A fixed rate loan that has payments starting lower than a standard fixed rate loan, which then increases by a predetermined amount each year for a set number of years.

Non-Qualifying Loan

(Assumable)

Non-Qualifying loans are preexisting loans which can be assumed by a buyer from the seller of a property without going through the qualifying process. The buyer pays the seller for their equity and then starts making payments.

VA Loan

VA loans are guaranteed by the Veterans Administration. A veteran must have served 180 days active service.

10) POINTS EXPLAINED

What is a Point?

One point is equal to 1% of the NEW Loan Amount.

Why do Lenders charge Points?

Whenever governmental regulation, state usury law and/or competitive practices prohibit the lender from charging a rate of interest which would make the real estate loan competitive with other fields of investments, the lender must seek some method of increasing the yield for the investors. By charging "points", the lender can bring the real estate loan up to those other investments.

Are points called by different names?

Yes. Loan Origination Fee, Commitment Fee, Discount Fee, Warehousing Fee, Funding Fee, etc.

Who must pay the points?

FHA: The Buyer is usually charged with the Loan Origination Fee; the Discount Fee can be paid by the Buyer or Seller.

VA: The Buyer is usually charged with the Loan Origination Fee and the Funding Fee.

Conventional!: points can be paid by the Buyer, the Seller, or split between the two. State on Contract of Sale!

Do the number of points charged fluctuate?

Yes. If rates on mortgage loans are lower than other investments (such as stocks, bonds, etc.) then funds will be drawn away from the mortgage market. Also, when there is a heavy demand upon the money market because of business needs, role requirements or other government borrowing, the result is that money for home mortgages becomes scarce and more expensive. When this occurs, more points can be charged. Points are set by supply and demand on the mortgage market. Points are not set by government regulation but by each lender individually.

On VA loans, is there any way to lock in the number of points?

Not without jeopardizing the sale. Even when a lender stipulates in writing the number of points to be charged, that guarantee states "if the interest rate is not changed by the government." Points charged on an FHA or conventional loan are usually not changed from commitment time to settlement.

Is FHA or VA financing unfair to sellers?

No. Homes can sell faster because more buyers can qualify with the lower down payment requirement, lower interest rate, - long term loans with lowest monthly payments. Sellers receive all cash for their equity to reinvest in a new home or other investment. The purpose of these loans is to provide purchasers the opportunity to buy homes with minimal cash investment thus providing a bigger market for sellers.

Are points deductible for income tax purposes?

Points on a home mortgage can and cannot be deductible. Please contact your tax adviser for information about deductibility of points.

U) Private Mortgage Insurance

When purchasing a home with a down payment less than 20% your lender will require you obtain PMI. This protects the lender in case of default on the loan. PMI has created the opportunity for many home buyers to qualify with smaller down payments. PMI is typically set up to be paid in 12 monthly installments per year and can be included as part of your monthly mortgage payment. Once your equity reaches 20% you can cancel your PMI by contacting your lender and following their guidelines to remove the insurance. Your lender may require an appraisal to verify the value of your property.

12) PAYING OFF YOUR EXISTING LOANS

Unless the buyer takes over (assumes) your existing loan(s) on the property, the loan(s) will be paid off during the escrow process. You will need to furnish complete information to your escrow officer and real estate agent on each loan against your property. Please be prepared to provide the name of the lender, the loan number, address and phone number of the lender. Your escrow officer will need this information to order the loan payoff demands, so the loan(s) may be paid off correctly during the escrow. Homeowners' Association information may also be required if you are selling a condominium, townhouse or property located in a planned unit development. All this information will help to insure the timely closing of the escrow.

13) DISCLOSURES AND CONTINGENCIES

During the process of selling your property, you will be asked to fill out a property disclosure form, which is now required by law. In this document, you will inform the buyer of any significant facts you have about the condition of the property.

There will be various contingency dates in your real estate sales contract. You should be very aware of these and be sure that the actions required are performed in a timely manner. Such contingencies include: the buyer's loan approval, approval of the Preliminary Report and approval of termite and other inspections. Stay closely in touch with your real estate agent regarding these important dates.

When the loan is approved and the loan documents are sent to the escrow officer or the escrow assistant handling your transaction, the escrow instructions and the deed will be prepared.

Recent legal decisions and new legislation provide that the seller has a responsibility for revealing to the buyer the true condition of the property. The concept of selling a property "as is," with the buyer assuming all responsibility for determining the property condition, is not acceptable in the present marketplace. The sellers must disclose the known condition of the property to the buyer. This information should be made available to the buyer as soon as possible.

CHARM OR IRRITANT?

Having lived in this property, the seller has become accustomed to the peculiar conditions that may have developed. But for the buyer, that peculiarity may be more than a mere inconvenience. It may be an irritant which the buyer cannot tolerate. It is important for the seller to review the condition of the property with the real estate agent and take special note of any problems on the Disclosure Statement. Civic Code Section 1102 requires that the seller provide the buyer with a completed "Real Estate Transfer Disclosure Statement."

W) ALL SYSTEMS GO

A basic assumption in every sale is that the house and systems in the house are functional. For example, the roof will hold out the rain and sun, the hot water heater will provide hot water, and the heater will provide heat. If it is known that any of the systems do not function properly, such facts should be included in the purchase agreement and acknowledged by the buyer.

X) "AS IS"

An "as is" purchase is perfectly acceptable, as long as the buyer understands exactly what the "as is" condition entails. Thus, it can be said in the purchase agreement that the buyer accepts the roof and the plumbing and the electrical system in their present condition and acknowledges that they have defects. This acknowledgment provides a defense for the seller if it is later claimed he did not disclose the problems.

Y) ENVIRONMENTAL HAZARDS

It is required that the seller discloses any knowledge of environmental hazards in the home or area such as asbestos, lead paint or pollutants. The Seller will fill out a Real Estate Transfer Disclosure Statement as to his awareness or knowledge on this subject.

Environmental Hazards Booklet: A Guide for Homeowners and Buyers is a handbook prepared by the California Department of Real Estate to inform you of the various toxins and hazardous wastes and what you can do about them. A copy of this publication will be given to you.

Z) Home Warranty

As Real Estate professionals, it is our duty to inform both Buyers and Sellers about the advantages of home warranty protection. This policy protects the Buyer by paying for certain repairs and costs of major mechanical systems and major appliances in the home such as heating and air-conditioning. There are a variety of plans available, and we would be happy to gather a selection of plans for you to review.

Depending on market conditions sellers might include a home warranty.

BENEFITS OF HOME WARRANTY COVERAGE TO THE SELLER

- Home may sell faster and at a higher price
- Optional coverage during the listing period
- Protection from legal disputes that occur after the sale
- Increases the marketability of your home

14) ESCROW INSTRUCTIONS

Escrow instructions define all the conditions that must occur before the transaction can be finalized. The escrow instructions represent your written statement to the escrow holder protecting your interests and specify, in a debit and credit format, the disposition of the sales proceeds and the conditions under which the Grant Deed may be recorded in favor of the new buyer.

A Grant Deed is the document which legally transfers your title to the property to the new owner. You will sign the Grant Deed as part of the escrow instructions and the deed will be notarized by your escrow officer or another qualified notary public. Proper identification is needed for this procedure. The Grant Deed is recorded at the time escrow closes.

Your escrow officer or real estate agent will contact you for an appointment to sign your escrow instructions and the Deed. At this time, the escrow officer will inform you of the amount of proceeds you will receive from the sale of your home. If you are also purchasing another home, arrangements can be made to transfer funds to your purchase escrow.

AA) YOUR APPOINTMENT

An appointment is required for the sign-off. Please call your escrow officer to arrange a convenient time and expect the process to take approximately one hour.

There are several acceptable forms of identification which may be used during the escrow process. These include: A current driver's license, Passport, etc. One of these forms of identification must be presented at the signing of escrow for the signature to be notarized.

On rare occasions, funds are insufficient to close escrow and you, the seller, must deposit money into the escrow. Should this situation occur, you will need to obtain a cashier's check or certified check issued by a California financial institution made payable to the escrow company in the amount indicated to you by your escrow officer or escrow assistant. A personal check may delay the closing since the escrow company is required by law to have good funds before disbursing funds from escrow. Similarly, an out of state check could cause a delay in closing, due to delays in clearing the check.

BB) HELPFUL REMINDERS

If you wish to transfer funds to another escrow or wire transfer funds, arrangements must be made in advance with the escrow officer.

If you wish to use a Power of Attorney, arrangements must be made one to two weeks in advance with the escrow officer and the Power of Attorney must be approved by the buyer's lender and your title company. These arrangements should be made as early as possible in the transaction.

Please bring appropriate identification with you to the escrow company, so that your identity can be verified by the notary public.

Should the funds deposited in escrow be insufficient for closing, you will need to bring a cashier's check or certified check to the title company for the remainder of the purchase price. Either type of check should be from a California bank or savings and loan and should be issued in the exact amount of the balance due. The amount of the balance may be obtained by phoning the escrow officer prior to signing the papers. The check should be made payable to your escrow company.

CC) AFTER THE SIGN-OFF

What's next after completion of the sign-off?

After you and the buyer have signed all the necessary instructions and documents, the escrow officer will return them to the new lender for a final review. Following the review, which usually occurs within a few days, the lender is ready to fund the buyer's loan and advises the escrow officer so that the necessary work can be completed to record the documents and "close" the escrow.

What is "escrow closing"?

It signifies legal transfer of title to the property from the seller to the buyer and is the culmination of the transaction.

When do I receive proceeds from the sale?

Usually the Grant Deed and Deed of Trust are recorded within one working day of the escrow's receipt of loan funds. This completes the transaction and signifies the "close of escrow." Once all the conditions of the escrow have been satisfied, the escrow officer advises you of the date the escrow will close and takes care of the technical and financial details, including paying off your loan.

A final settlement statement and a check for the proceeds will be available to you the day the sale is completed; documents are recorded, and the escrow is closed.

DD) AFTER THE CLOSE

What happens after escrow closes?

After the loan has been finalized, the documents signed and recorded, and the financial settlement completed, there are still several steps which must be accomplished to complete the transaction.

Your existing loan is being paid in full of the escrow. Your lender is required by law to issue a full reconveyance of their loan. As soon as the deed of reconveyance removing the previous Deed of Trust is received, it should be recorded, and the original returned to you. This may take several weeks. However, you need not be concerned by this delay since it is normal.

What happens to funds held in escrow?

In some cases, the escrow holder will be instructed to hold funds in escrow to pay off obligations which may not be completed until after escrow closes. An example might be a set-aside of funds to correct a structural problem, remodeling or termite repair work. Upon completion of the project and receipt of the proper documentation and releases, the escrow officer will disburse the reserved funds.

16) Tax Information

There are several types of taxes that can be a part of your real estate transaction.

This information is provided solely as a courtesy and we recommend you seek professional tax advice for all questions or concerns regarding taxes and your transaction.

Some of the taxes mentioned below can potentially be a part of your real estate transaction:

- Property Taxes
- Transfer Tax
- Mello Roos
- Supplemental Taxes
- Capital Gains Tax
- FIRPTA
- Change of Ownership Filing (PCOR)
- CAL Withholding

EE) PROPERTY TAX SCHEDULE

Property Taxes are due:

- November 1: 1st Installment
- February 1: 2nd Installment

Depending on when you sell or buy and depending if property taxes have already been paid by the seller, the buyer or seller need to pay property taxes at Escrow and the seller might get a credit back. Your escrow officer will determine all details and ensure property taxes are correctly accounted for.

FF) TRANSFER TAX

This tax is levied by the County any time real property is conveyed. This tax is paid at the time of recording and is usually paid by the Seller however, in some cases the Buyer and Seller may split the cost. The tax is based on the sales price and is usually charged per $500 or $1,000 of the sales price. Some cities also have a transfer tax that is charged in addition to the county tax and typically will be paid together. In some cases, a separate check may need to be mailed to the city. Your escrow officer will advise you on the payment of this tax and the amount.

GG) MELLO ROOS

Mello Roos is a special tax imposed on those real property owners within a Community Facilities District. This district has chosen to seek public financing through the sale of bonds for the purpose of financing certain public improvements and services. These services may include streets, water, sewage and drainage, electricity, infrastructure, schools, parks and police protection to newly developing areas. The tax you pay is used to make the payments of principal and interest on the bonds.

By purchasing an interest in a subdivision within a Community Facilities District you can expect to be assessed for a Mello Roos tax which will typically be collected with your general property tax bill. These special tax payments are subject to the same penalties that apply to regular property taxes.

HH) SUPPLEMENTAL PROPERTY TAXES WHEN CLOSING AN ESCROW

The California Land Title Association (CLTA) has put together this Q&A regarding Supplemental Property Taxes to help navigate you through the settlement process.

Q. When did this tax come into effect?

A. The Supplemental Real Property Tax Law was signed by the Governor in July of 1983 and is part of an ambitious drive to aid California's schools. This property tax revision is expected to produce over $300 million per year in revenue for schools.

Q. How will Supplemental Property Taxes affect me?

A. If you don't plan on buying new property or undertaking new construction, this new tax will not affect you at all. But, if you do wish to do either of the two, you will be required to pay a supplemental property tax which will become a lien against your property as of the date of ownership change or the date of completion of new construction.

Q. When and how will I be billed?

A. "When" is not easy to predict. You could be billed in as few as three weeks, or it could take over six months. "When" will depend on the individual county and the workload of the County Assessor, the County Controller/Auditor and the County tax Collector. The assessor will appraise your property and advise you of the new supplemental assessment amount. At the time you will have the opportunity to discuss your valuation, apply for a Homeowner's Exemption and be informed of your right to file an Assessment Appeal. The County will then calculate the amount of the supplemental tax and the tax collector will mail you a supplemental tax bill. The supplemental tax bill will identify, among other things, the following information: the amount of the supplemental tax and the date on which the taxes will become delinquent.

Q. Can I pay my supplemental tax bill in installments?

A. All the supplemental taxes on the secured roll are payable in two equal installments. The taxes are due on the date the bill is mailed and are delinquent on specified dates depending on the month the bill is mailed as follows:

- (1) If the bill is mailed within the months of July through October, the first installment shall become delinquent on December 10th of the same year. The second installment shall become delinquent on April 10th of the next year.
- (2) If the bill is mailed within the months of November through June, the first installment shall become delinquent on the last day of the month following the month in which the bill is mailed. The second installment shall become delinquent on the last day of the fourth calendar month following the date the first installment is delinquent.

Q. How will the amount of my bill be determined?

A. There is a formula used to determine your tax bill. The total supplemental assessment will be pro-rated based on the number of months remaining until the end of the tax year, June 30.

Q. Can you give me an idea of how the proration factor works?

A. The supplemental tax becomes effective on the first day of the month following the month in which the change of ownership or completion of new construction occurred. If the effective date is July 1, then there will be no supplemental assessment on the current tax roll and the entire supplemental assessment will be made to the tax roll being prepared which will then reflect the full cash value. In the event the effective date is not on July 1, then the table of factors represented on the following panel is used to compute the supplemental assessment on the current tax roll.

If the effective date is:	The Proration Factor is:
August 1	.92
September 1	.83
October 1	.75
November 1	.67
December 1	.58
January 1	.50
February 1	.42
March 1	.33
April 1	.25
May 1	.17
June 1	.08

EXAMPLE:

The County Auditor finds that the supplemental property taxes on your new home would be $1,000 for a full year. The change of ownership took place on September 15th with the effective date being October 1st. The supplemental property taxes would, therefore, be subject to a proration factor of .75 and your supplemental tax would be $750.

Q. Will my taxes be pro-rated in escrow?

A. No, unlike your ordinary annual taxes, the supplemental tax is a onetime tax which dates from the date you take ownership of your property or complete the construction until the end of the tax year on June 30th. The obligation for this tax is entirely that of the property owner.

II) CAPITAL GAINS TAX

The following is strictly provided for general information, please contact your tax adviser for details and advise.

In principal almost everything you own and use for personal purposes, pleasure or investment is a capital asset. Your main home or investment property is no exception. When you sell a capital asset, such as your home, the difference between the amount you sell it for and your basis, which is usually what you paid for it, is capital gains or capital loss. While you must report all capital gains, you may deduct only your capital losses on investment property, not personal property.

Generally, for most taxpayers, net capital gain is taxed at rates no higher than 15%. Some or all net capital gain may be taxed at 0% if you are in the 10% to 15% ordinary income tax brackets. However, beginning in 2013, a new 20% rate on net capital gain applies to higher income earners.

JJ) FIRPTA

This is not common in most transactions. Foreign Investors Real Property Taxation Act requires a percentage of the sales price be withheld for foreign ownership. This applies to nonresident aliens of USA, including foreign partnerships, foreign trusts and foreign estates. It is the Buyer's responsibility to report and withhold, not the escrow officer. Seller can request a waiver or reduced withholding and there are some exceptions under the IRS Code. Please contact your tax adviser for more information.

KK) CHANGE OF OWNERSHIP FILING

During your escrow process and every time, a property is purchased, or ownership is transferred for other reasons a Change of Ownership Form (PCOR) must be filled out. You will receive a PCOR with your escrow documents and you will be required to fill it out completely. This allows the county office that assesses taxes to reassess the tax liability when a property is transferred from a seller to buyer.

You will need to supply information on the property such as type of transfer, purchase price and terms of sale etc... The PCOR normally satisfies the change of ownership requirements when filled out completely and accurately by the Buyer. The county assessor may also request other information about a deed or other matters related to the transfer after reviewing the PCOR. The PCOR is confidential and not recorded or available for public inspection.

If the PCOR is not filed at the time of recording, the county assessor will charge an additional $20.00 in most counties. The tax assessor will still require the information and after recording will send a Change of Ownership Statement (COS) to the transferee (buyer). If the COS is not filed by the transferee within 45 days of the county assessor's request, then penalties can ultimately range from $100 to $20,000.

LL) CAL WITHHOLDING

This requires that 3 1/3% of the sales price or an alternative withholding amount be paid to the Franchise Tax Board and applies to non-owner-occupied property. The Buyer must withhold this amount and is responsible however, the Buyer can request the task be passed on to escrow. Escrow may charge a fee for processing the withholding or waiver. This tax is a prepayment of California State Income tax for Sellers on the taxable gain of California real property.

17) WHAT IS AN ESCROW?

An escrow is an independent "stakeholder" account and is the vehicle by which the interests of all parties to the transaction are protected.

The escrow is created after you execute the contract for the sale of your home and becomes the depository for all monies, instructions and documents pertaining to the sale. Some aspects of the sale are not part of the escrow. For example, the buyer and seller must decide which fixtures or personal property items are included in the sales agreement. Similarly, loan negotiations occur between the buyer and the lender. Your real estate agent can guide you in these non-escrow matters.

MM) HOW DOES THE ESCROW PROCESS WORK?

The escrow officer takes instructions based on the terms of your Purchase Agreement and the lender's requirements. The escrow officer can hold inspection reports and bills for work performed as required by the purchase agreement. Other elements of the escrow include hazard and title insurance, and the grant deed from the seller to you. Escrow cannot be completed until these items have been satisfied and all parties have signed escrow documents.

NN) HOW DO I OPEN AN ESCROW?

Either your real estate agent or the buyer's agent may open escrow. As soon as you execute the Purchase Agreement, your agent will place your initial deposit into an escrow account at the escrow company.

OO) HOW DO I KNOW WHERE MY MONEY GOES?

Written evidence of the deposit is generally included in your copy of the sales contract. The funds will then be deposited in a separate escrow or trust account. You will receive a receipt for the funds from the escrow company.

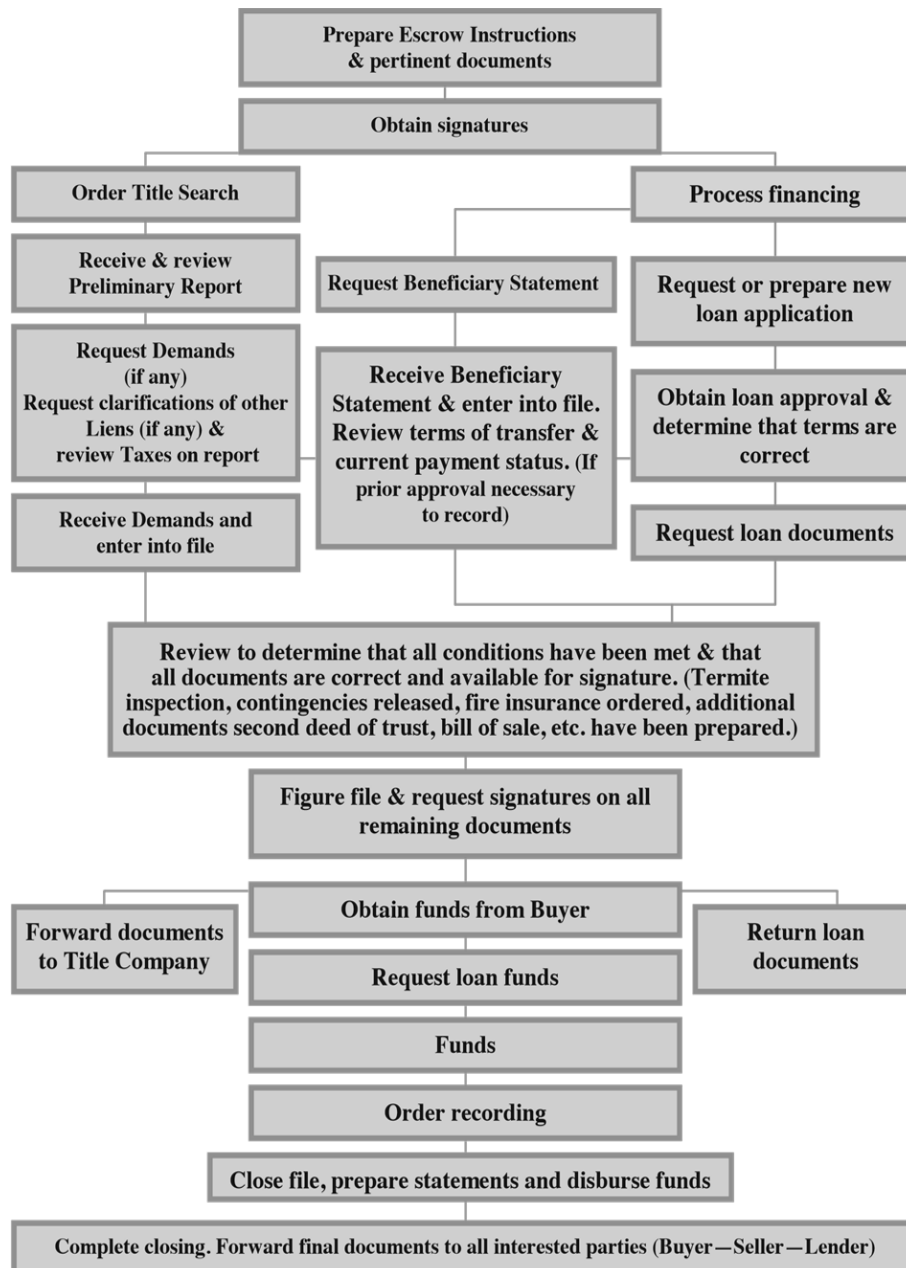

PP) WHAT INFORMATION DO I NEED TO PROVIDE?

You may be asked to complete a Statement of Identity as part of the paperwork. Because many people have the same name, the Statement of Identity is used to identify the specific person in the transaction through such information as date of birth, social security number, etc. This information is considered confidential.

QQ) HOW LONG IS THE ESCROW?

The amount of time necessary to complete the escrow is determined by the terms of the Purchase Agreement. It is normally 45 to 60 days but can range from a few days to several months.

RR) LIFE OF AN ESCROW

18) TITLE INSURANCE

In California, most real estate transactions are closed with a title insurance policy. Many home buyers just assume that when they purchase a piece of property, possession of the deed to the property is all they need to prove ownership. This is not true. Hidden hazards may attach to real estate. A property owner's greatest protection is a policy of title insurance.

SS) WHAT IS TITLE INSURANCE?

It is a contract of indemnity which guarantees that the title is as reported and, if not reported and the owner is damaged, the title policy covers the insured for their loss up to the amount of the policy.

Title insurance assures owners that they are acquiring marketable title. Title insurance is designed to eliminate risk or loss caused by defects in title from the past. Title insurance provides coverage only for title problems which were already in existence at the time the policy was issued.

TT) THE TITLE SEARCH

Title companies work to eliminate risks by performing a search of the public records or through the title company's own plant. The search consists of public records, laws and court decisions pertaining to the property to determine the current recorded ownership, any recorded liens or encumbrances or any other matters of record which could affect the title to the property. When a title search is complete, the title company issues a preliminary report detailing the current status of title.

UU) THE PRELIMINARY REPORT

A preliminary report contains vital information which can affect the close of escrow: Ownership of the subject property; where the current owners hold title; matters of record that specifically affect the subject property or the owners of the property; a legal description of the property and an informational plat map.

VV) USEFUL TERMS

VESTING

Make sure the names on the Preliminary Report are the correct names and that the property is the same as the property on the purchase contract.

TAXES AND ASSESSMENTS

Look for an exemption or classification designation that would change the tax amount as a result of the sale.

DEED OF TRUST

Make sure all paid off Deeds of Trusts are reconvened. Upon proof of payment and/or an indemnity, the title company may insure around the encumbrance.

IDENTITY MATTERS

A 'Statement of Information' can clear up identity issues that may arise. If there are judgments and liens that belong to the party in question and have been paid then a release or satisfaction must be obtained and recorded or filed to eliminate the matter.

PENDING ACTIONS

A civil action affecting real property generally will have to be dismissed before title can insure. A divorce or probate doesn't have to be finalized but special requirements may exist. Check with your Title Rep. or Title Officer for more information.

JOINT USE MATTERS

Driveways, party walls and easements may prompt Lenders to require a joint maintenance agreement. The preliminary report will show such agreements if one is of record.

EXTENDED COVERAGE MATTERS

If a physical inspection of the subject property discloses encroachments, lien rights, or other matters, these must be addressed before the lender will close. An extended coverage owner's policy may be requested, and a survey of the property will be required.

LEGAL DESCRIPTION

The legal description should always be compared to the legal description in the purchase and sale agreement to be sure that all the property being conveyed has been included in the preliminary report.

WW) STATEMENT OF INFORMATION

Statement of Information is a form routinely requested from the buyer, seller and borrower in a transaction where title insurance is sought. The completed form provides the title company with information needed to adequately examine documents to disregard matters which do not affect the property to be insured, matters which apply to some other person.

Every day documents affecting real property--liens, court decrees, bankruptcies--are recorded. Whenever a title company uncovers a recorded document in which the name is the same or similar to that of the buyer, seller or borrower in a title transaction, the title company must ask, "Does this document affect the parties we are insuring?" Because, if it does, it affects title to the property and would, therefore, be listed as an exception from coverage under the title policy.

XX) TITLE POLICY COVERAGE COMPARISON

CLTA OWNERS POLICY

1. Title to the estate or interest described in Schedule A being vested other than stated therein.
2. Any defect in or lien or encumbrance on the title.
3. Unmarketability of the title.
4. Lack of a right of access to and from the land.

ALTA RESIDENTIAL POLICY

1. Someone else owns an interest in your land.
2. A document is not properly signed, sealed, acknowledged, or delivered.
3. Forgery, fraud, duress, incompetency, incapacity or impersonation.
4. Defective recording of any document.
5. You do not have any legal right of access to and from the land.
6. There are restrictive covenants limiting the use of the land.
7. There is a lien on your land because of: a mortgage or deed of trust, judgment, tax or special assessment or HOA lien.
8. There are liens on your title arising now or later, for labor and materials furnished before the policy date - unless you agreed to pay for the labor and materials.
9. Others have rights arising out of leases, contracts, or options.
10. Someone else has an easement on your land.
11. Your title is unmarketable, which allows another person to refuse to perform a contract to purchase, to lease or to make a mortgage loan.
12. You are forced to remove your existing structure - other than a boundary wall or fence - because: it extends on to adjoining land or on to any easement; it violates a restriction shown in schedule B; it violates an existing zoning law.
13. You cannot use the land because use as a single-family residence violates a restriction shown in schedule B or an existing zoning law.
14. Other defects, liens, or encumbrances.

ALTA HOMEOWNERS POLICY

1. Someone else owns an interest in your title.
2. Someone else has rights affecting Your Title arising out of leases, contracts, or options.

9. Someone else has an encumbrance on Your Title.
10. Someone else claims to have rights affecting Your Title arising out of fraud, duress, incompetency or incapacity.
11. You do not have both actual vehicular and pedestrian access to and from the Land, based upon a legal right.
12. You are forced to correct or remove an existing violation of any covenant, condition or restriction affecting the Land, even if the covenant, condition or restriction is accepted in Schedule B.

C) ESCROW STATEMENT OF INFORMATION

Statement of Information is a form routinely requested from the buyer, seller and borrower in a transaction where title insurance is sought. The completed form provides the title company with information needed to adequately examine documents to disregard matters which do not affect the property to be insured, matters which apply to some other person.

Every day documents affecting real property--liens, court decrees, bankruptcies--are recorded. Whenever a title company uncovers a recorded document in which the name is the same or similar to that of the buyer, seller or borrower in a title transaction, the title company must ask, "Does this document affect the parties we are insuring?" Because, if it does, it affects title to the property and would, therefore, be listed as an exception from coverage under the title policy.

YY) POLICY COVERAGE

Not all risks can be determined by a title search, since certain things such as forgeries, identity of persons, incompetency, failure to comply with the law, or incapacity, cannot be disclosed by an examination of the public record. The preliminary title report is an offer to insure under certain situations, whereas the title policy is a contract that gives coverage against such problems.

The American Land Title Association is the standard policy of title insurance in America.
